Headnotes	Present Constitution	Constitution of 1867	Constitution of 1864
		of the State, having a population of eighteen thousand souls, or less, shall be entitled to two Delegates; and every County, having a pop-	two; Frederick, six; Harford, four; Howard, two; Kent, two; Montgomery, two; Prince George's, two; Queen ulation of over eighteen thousand, and less than twenty-eight thousand souls, shall be entitled to three	Anne's, two; St. Mary's, one; Somerset, three; Talbot, two; Washington, five; Worcester, three.
		Delegates; and every County, having a population of twenty-eight thousand, and less than forty thousand souls, shall be entitled to four Delegates; and every County, having a population of forty thousand, and less than fifty-five thousand souls, shall be entitled to five Dele- gates; and every County, having a population of fifty- five thousand souls, and up- wards, shall be entitled to six Delegates, and no more; and each of the three Legislative Districts of the City of Baltimore shall be en- titled to the number of Dele- gates to which the largest County shall, or may be entitled, under the aforegoing apportionment. And the General Assembly shall have power to provide by Law, from time to time, for altering and changing the boundaries of the three exist- ing Legislative Districts of the City of Baltimore, so as to make them, as near as may be, of equal population; but said Districts shall always consist of contiguous territory.
		Sec. 5. Immediately after the taking and publishing of the next National Census, or after any State enumeration of population, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Governor, then being, to arrange the Rep- resentation in said House of

Constitution of 1851	Constitution 1776	•

of

burgesses, shall, on the same for by the constitution. first Monday of October seventeen hundred and seventy-seven, and on the same day in every year for ever thereafter, elect viva voce, by a majority of votes, two delegates to the General Asdelegates, qualified agreeable sembly for the December to the said charter; that the session of the year of our mayor, recorder, and elder- Lord, eighteen hundred and men, of the said city, or any thirty eight, and at each three of them, be judges of succeeding election for delethe election, appoint the gates, until after the next place in the said city for census shall have been taken holding the same, and may and officially promulged, five adjourn from day to day as delegates shall be elected in aforesaid, and shall make and for Baltimore City, and return thereof as aforesaid; one delegate in and for the but the inhabitants of the City of Annapolis, until the said city shall not be entitled | promulging of the census for to vote for delegates for the year eighteen hundred Anne-Arundel county, unless and forty, when the City of they have a freehold of fifty Annapolis shall be deemed acres of land in the county, and taken as a part of Anne distinct from the city.

habitants of Baltimore town, and having the same qualifications as electors in the for Frederick County, and county, shall, on the same four delegates in and for first Monday of October Anne Arundel County, and seventeen hundred and sev- four delegates in and for enty-seven, and on the same each of the Several Counties day in every year for ever respectively hereinafter menthereafter, at such place in tioned, to wit, Dorchester, the said town as the judges shall appoint, elect viva voce. George's, Harford, Montby a majority of votes, two gomery, Carroll and Washdelegates, qualified as afore- | ington; and three delegates said; but if the said inhabi- in and for each of the Sevtants of the town shall so eral Counties respectively, decrease, as that the number hereinafter next mentioned, of persons having right of to wit, Cecil, Kent, Queen suffrage therein shall have Anne's, Caroline, Talbot, been for the space of seven years; successively less than vert, and Alleghany. one half the number of voters in some one county in Sec. 10. From and after

Amendments to 1776 Constitution

city of Annapolis to vote for of two as is now provided Proposed by Act of 1836, chapter 197. Ratified 1837.

Sec. 9. The election for Arundel County, and her right to a separate delega-5. That all persons, in- tion shall cease, five delegates in, and for Baltimore County, five delegates in and Somerset, Worcester, Prince Saint Mary's, Charles, Cal-this State, such town thence- the period when the next forward shall cease to send census shall have been taken, two delegates or representa- and officially promulged, tives to the house of dele- and from and after the offi-